"COME TO THE PEOPLE'S TRIBUNAL"

UPTOWN RESIDENTS FIGHT FOR GOOD HOUSING

Following the deaths of two children, within two weeks, in slum buildings owned by the notorious Gutman brothers (Herman, Leon, Max and Jeffery), the people began to act against the Gutmans, by starting the fight against the slumlords for good housing. Rising Up Angry, along with the Council of the Mojave and many concerned Uptown residents, began a campaign to get the State's Attorney, and other city offices, to indict and prosecute the Gutman brothers, under the criminal housing management section of the criminal code, for their blatent negligence and obvious disregard for the people.

At first, the Gutman's didn't believe that the people they have pushed around and stepped on for so long could unite and act against them. They tried to keep tenants and concerned people, who were circulating petitions, out of their slum buildings, even though it is legal to circulate such petitions and leaflets in apartment buildings. (The Gutman's own 40 slum buildings, in Uptown alone). They called the police, and then ordered their hired thugs to keep people out of the buildings by using pipes, screw drivers, and other such weapons. Entering a Gutman building, which is already like entering a concentration camp, became even more difficult. Tenants and guests are required to sign in, and are usually told they can't visit their friends or have friends in. Other conditions that exist in Gutman's buildings include: mail being held; welfare, disability, unemployment and social security checks being stolen; rent deposits stolen; and on and on.

A tenant in the 922 W. Eastwood building, the Rev. Bob Dickey and his family, began to complain about the conditions in that building: faulty electrical wiring, barbed wire blocking the fire escape, broken elevators, the manager has an illegal extention on the public phone and he listens (spys) on his tenants conversations, they've refused to put locks on the mail boxes (as required by law) and the tenants have their mail held, looked at, and sometimes stolen by the management, the basements are filled with garbage, and more. After no response to these complaints, Rev. Dickey began to circulate the petition calling for the indictment and prosecution of the Gutman's.

Gutman's manager-thug tried to throw Dickey and his family out of the building, threatened their lives, and then took to beating them. The police had to take the family to the hospital for treatment and then escort them back into the building where they live, which should be a home - not a prison. Warrents were issued for the arrest of the manager and his wife.

Such tactics of intimidation and brutalization, as practiced by the Gutmans and their thugs against tenants and concerned people, have not succeeded. The petitions and leaflets are being circulated, with great response, in the Gutman buildings and throughout Uptown. The people will not be stopped. Now, the Gutmans have turned to trying a new tactic. Encountering someone circulating a petition on November 14th, Herman Gutman begged Rising Up Angry to "call off the dogs." He claimed his buildings were in good condition, an obvious lie, proved by the conditions of the buildings that caused the deaths of Jennifer LaBarge (2) and Eric Roy (23 months). He tried to blame the people for the bad conditions, rather than his own greed. Finally, he took to crying (crocodile tears) and offering a "sizeable sum of money if the organization calls off the dogs."

Money and phoney tears cannot stop the people. GOOD HOUSING IS A HUMAN RIGHT, AND WE WILL FIGHT FOR THAT RIGHT! Money and phoney tears will not bring back the lives of the two children. We can not bring these children back to life, but we, the people, can prevent further such slumlord-murders by standing together and showing the State's Attorney, and other city officials, that WE MEAN BUSINESS WHEN WE SAY, INDICT AND PROSECUTE THE GUTMAN BROTHERS TO THE FULLEST!

For too long, the city building inspectors, and the courts, have taken payoffs and bribes and used legal maneuvers to let the Gutmans off the hook and allow them to neglect their rotton buildings. Now, the Gutmans are scurrying around, like the rats they are, trying to make it look like they are repairing their buildings. Their fear is a result of the people's fight against them, not because of anything the city's building inspectors, prosecutors and courts have done. The campaign against the Gutmans is growing; more and more people are coming forward, signing petitions, circulating them, telling their friends, and telling the Gutmans (who have threatened to throw tenants out of the buildings) that they won't move and he can't make them.

The time has come for the people to come together and stand together to force the indictment and prosecution of these slumlords.

On Thursday night November 30, there will be a PEOPLE'S TRIBUNAL of the Gutmans. The State's Attorney will be there. City officials will be there. Lawyers will be there. Tenants with evidence and grievances will be there. Former Gutman tenants will be there. Some of Gutmans former managers, who have refused to do the dirty work against the people any longer, will be there. Concerned people from everywhere will be there. YOU BE THERE. Let nothing keep you from this tribunal. Things are going to happen, and we will get results. If you've got kids, bring the kids. If you need a ride, people will help you. Bring your husbands and wives, your uncles and aunts, sons and daughters, grandmothers and grandfathers. Bring everyone, young and old.

If you live, or have lived, in a Gutman building, and want to testify at the People's Tribunal, call Rising Up Angry at 472 - 1791. It's important that you call us before the Tribunal. Also, if you have information concerning the Gutmans, or their buildings, and don't want to testify at the Tribunal, call us and we'll work it out.

IT IS THE STRENGTH OF THE PEOPLE THAT WILL GET THE GUTMANS AND START US ON THE ROAD TO GOOD HOUSING !

PEOPLE'S GRAPEVINE

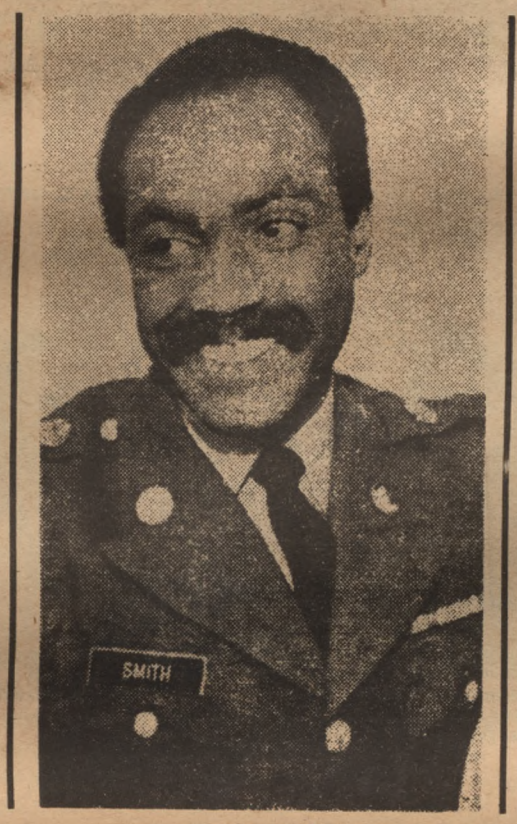
Pvt. Billy Dean Smith Is Free

Pvt. Billy Dean Smith was aquitted Tuesday, November 14th, of all charges of murder and attempted murder made against him - he was convicted of one charge of assaulting a military police officer (the one who falsely arrested him in Bien Hoa, Vietnam, on March 15, 1971, after 2 lieutenants were killed and a third was wounded by a fragmentation grenade). The general court martial jury, after deliberating for 2½ hours, sentenced Billy to an immediate bad conduct discharge and reduced his rank for the assault conviction.

Billy Smith is a 24 year old Black man from the Watts district of Los Angeles. When he was arrested in Vietnam, almost 2 years ago, it was clear to him,and those who knew him, that he was singled out for punishment because of his outspoken views on the war and the military in general. His was the first fragging trial to be held in the United States. He said that, "If the trial had been held in Vietnam, something would have happened very bad" and that, "Not everybody (who is charged in Vietnam) is lucky enough to have a trial."

When people learned that the military was trying to legally murder Billy,and use him as an example of what they do to "troublemakers," a huge movement to "Free Billy Smith" grew among both civialins and G.I.'s. There was no evidence against Billy,and as he testified, he was in a bunker,in another unit,smoking marijuana with two buddies at the time.

Hazel Smith, Billy's 60 year old mother, wiped tears from her eyes as she said, "I'm so glad my son is free." Free - after being held in jail, both in Vietnam and later at Fort Ord, for the past 20 months,for a crime he didn't commit. Billy said he had no resentment against anyone - "except maybe the system."



Billy Smith

Billy Smith is out of jail - but he is not free. The system that tried to railroad him is still railroading and persecuting our brothers and sisters in the military who are disgusted with America's immoral war in Indochina. The case of Billy Smith only makes it clear that we must all resist the war by demanding an immediate end to the bombing and recognizing the right of the Indochinese people to their self-determination. We are none of us free - until we are all free from the corruption and distruction this government imposes on people in order to gain more power.

END THE WAR NOW!
ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

Struggle With Welfare

In the last issue of R.U.A. (Vol. 4 no. 6) there was an article about Eleanor Harless, a women who was getting messed around by welfare and by her landlord. She hadn't recieved her checks in over three months and she and her kids were without food, and her landlord threatened to put a lock on her door to try to make her move. The legal program called her landlord and told him he was not going to put a lock on her door, and we'd make sure of that. We told him he'd get his money as soon as we got after welfare. We then pushed her welfare caseworker and Eleanor finally got all of her checks. This is just another small victory in the struggle for survival under an inhumane and inadequate welfare system.

All Power to the People!

The huge movement to "Free Billy Smith" stopped the military in it's attempt to make an example of him. This demonstration was held at the Federal Building, Chicago, a few months ago.

Black Community Unites To Smash Hanrahan

The Democratic Party's political machine has controlled Chicago for a long time. This has been especially true in the low income neighborhoods where the people don't benefit from either party. You vote straight democratic because some party hack promised a favor if you did, or because they'll somehow inconvenience you if you don't. The machine had it so together that there was really only one party in Chicago, the Mayor Daley Party.

This year Edward Hanrahan was running once again for State's Attorney. Hanrahan is an enemy of the people, especially Black people. But because the Democratic Party never loses elections in Chicago, Hanrahan was sure that he would win. He arrogantly bragged about how the Black community has voted Democratic every other time so there was no reason to believe that this was any different.

But it was different , because Hanrahan's different. Hanrahan isn't the average run-of-the-mill corrupt, lying politician. Hanrahan is super-pig. From the time he was elected in 1968, Hanrahan used his job to oppress the people. He indicted and railroaded innocent people into jail. He was prejudiced and racist in his dealings with Black people. When Hanrahan was elected there was no doubt that the court system would become even more racist and unjust.

On December 4, 1969, Hanrahan ordered the murder of Fred Hampton and Mark Clark. The ruthless and cold-blooded act made Hanrahan even more hated. Then he got caught lying about what happened. When indicted, Hanrahan refused to resign. Then the acquittal showed how corrupt the court system is. Hanrahan was tried by an old drinking partner who had decided the verdict before the trial even started. All these things angered the people

To show even more contempt for the people, Hanrahan used the so-called De Mau Mau case to play on the racism and fear of the mass media and the white community to get headlines. Hanrahan charged 7 people with murder just in time to get himself votes. He tried to make himself look like the great crime fighter, but it was all an election gimmick.

After he had done all this, Hanrahan still thought that he would carry the Black votes. It was possible because the Black community has voted 90% democratic in every other election. For Hanrahan to lose the Black wards would be a tremendous upset for the democratic party and a tremendous victory for the people.

Hanrahan lost 10 of the 14 predominantly Black wards. Carey didn't win on Nixon's coattails either, because McGovern overwhelmingly won in those same wards. For the first time in recent history, the Democratic Machine couldn't carry their most reliable wards. The hate that most people feel for Hanrahan is great enough to change history.

Hanrahan's defeat is a good thing for all the people in Chicago. The unity in the Black community defeated him. This is just the beginning of the end for the corrupt Democratic Machine. When all the neighborhoods in Chicago stop listening to their committeemen and precinct captains and start acting on what they believe, Mayor Daley's dictatorship will come to an end.

THE PEOPLE DEFEATED HANRAHAN!

TWO BROTHERS KILLED IN GANG FIGHT

It was with great sorrow that Rising Up Angry learned that two brothers were recently killed in fighting between street gangs on the near northwest side.

On Sunday, October 8th, Desie Conlon (pictured and Andy Kacmarski, were killed in a fight that started over the possession of a club sweater by a rival club. Both Desie and Andy were members of the PVPs (Playboys, Ventures and Pulaski Park). Also injured were three other PVPs, Mike Conlon, Mike Boltright and Larry Arnold, who were hit by shotgun blasts in the fight that took place on Bosworth near Blackhawk.

Fighting between clubs has been going on, on the northwest side, for a number of years. As is always the case in gang fights, it is the people - whether white, black or latin - who lose. It is the police, and the politicians and businessmen they work for, who benefit. One so-called officer of the law, Sgt. Jankowski of the 14th district, spends considerable time harassing and busting club members on the streets and in their club houses. It's his job to try to continue keeping the young brothers and sisters divided among themselves so that they won't become a united group that would threaten those who create the conditions that oppress all the people. The time will come when the people will be united and that is a goal that is truly worth fighting for!

NorthwestSide Clubs Meet

On Wednesday night, November 8th, a number of clubs from the northwest side had planned to have a meeting with the 14th dist. police to discuss the harassment of club members by the police. Members of the Palmer-Sacramento Gaylords had arranged a place to meet, St. Sylvesters Church Social Hall, which is located one block from the 14th dist. station. They had contacted the police and members of other clubs; all promised to come.

About 60 club members showed up including Belairs, Simon City Royals, Jousters, Kolmar Park Popes, Tripp Avenue Heads, Gaylords, Palmer and Sacramento, Kilborn Park, Lawndale Park, Blackhawk Park, LeMoyne and Springfield. People waited for the police to arrive so the meeting could begin. The police did arrive, and when they did, they took some people away, including Michael Hudson, who had helped organize the meeting. They said they wanted to question him and would return in ½ hour. After waiting for some time, people were ready to march to the station for Mike, but just then the police brought him back and then left with him again. Finally, he returned and there was a brief meeting - without the police. The only police who showed were those who came to harass club members. The police did not come to meet with the people as they had promised. No one should have expected the police to act in good faith. That is not their job. Their job is to keep people divided and controlled - we must not forget that or be deceived by them.

GARY LAWTON Political Prisoner

Gary Lawton is a Black man, an ex-marine, a self-employed maintenance man, and a political activist from Riverside, California. Two white policemen were killed in Riverside on April 2, 1971, days after the Black Community had been outraged by the murder of William Palmer who was shot in the back by a cop. Gary Lawton was charged with two counts of first degree murder. There is no evidence at all against Gary Lawton. He matched none of the four descriptions given, which said the suspects were between the ages of 16 and 18 and that 3 were 6 feet tall and thin. Gary is 33, heavy set and balding. Gary took 3 lie detector test, at his own request, and the test confirmed "no deception" in his statements. Gary Lawton is being framed.

A member of VVAW, carrying a sign demanding the freedom of Gary Lawton, at a rally in California.

There are 3 people, 2 Black men and a 14 year old white girl, who are supposed to be able to prove that Gary is guilty. One is Ronald Williams, who claims he sold Lawton the shotgun used in the killings but none of Gary's guns matched the ballistics of the murder weapon. Williams is widely suspected by the Black community of Riverside of being a pig informer. Another is Ronald McKenna, who is also suspected of being an informer as well as a drug addict. The district attorney said that he secured "collaborating testimony" from a 14 year old white girl linking Lawton to the shooting. All three of these "witnesses" are in "protective custody" in San Francisco.

Gary's bail was set at $150,000. Naturally, he couldn't afford it, but that didn't matter anyway because the court ruled that any bail was impossible for Lawton because the "presumption of guilt is evident".

Because of the tension in Riverside, the court ruled that the case be moved somewhere else. So they moved it to Indio, California in the middle of the desert. Indio has a population of 16,000 of which only a small handful of the people there are Black. The jury is supposed to be made up of "ones peers" (people from the same economic and social background); but this is Gary Lawton's jury: 8 women and 3 men, all white, the average age is 50 years old and all come from a middle or upper class background.

Gary Lawton has been struggling for the interests of Black people and all exploited and oppressed people and now he needs our help. We must help him as well as the thousands of political prisoners like him that are rotting away in prisons because they want an end to the racism and fascism that this country is inflicted with.

Boycott McDonald's

On Wednesday, November 15th, brothers and sisters from an organization called Helping Hand, along with McDonald's workers, started a boycott of McDonald's restaurants. The boycott is to protest the slave wages they pay ($1.60 an hour) and racial discrimination in their hiring. You can support our brothers and sisters in this struggle by not supporting McDonald's with your money!

Mother Jones Food Co-op Dinner

The Mother Jones Food Cooperative is a group of Waukegan area families who realize the necessity of getting together to combat the incredibly high food prices we are forced to pay. We believe we have found one solution to serve the needs of the people for better food at lower prices. The coop is run by the people it serves, rather than by big businessmen whose only interest is to make profits.

On Sunday, November 12, the families who work together in the coop held a fantastic dinner. There were about 60 people there and everyone brought food - it turned out to be quite a feast. A sister from the group, Sharon, gave a speech about the strength we all feel from working together - united we stand, divided we fall. But the highlight of the evening belongs to the kids. The kids in the coop put together a puppet show and after that they performed a skit that a young sister wrote. It was about people deciding to boycott a grocery store because of the high prices - and because the people were united, they won a victory! The play was a reflection of the unity in the coop and sharing meals together like this helps to make our spirits stronger.

COOK COUNTY NURSES STRIKE

Since last June, both the Registered Nurses (R.N.'s) and Licensed Practical Nurses (L.P.N.'s) at Cook County Hospital have been negotiating separately for a decent work contract. They were not offered one. They wanted higher wages, an end to arbitrary layoffs and some sort of greivance procedure, both for the nurses' working conditions and about the quality of care received by the patients. (Conditions are so bad at Cook County Hospital that cameras are carefully screened at all the entrances – to make sure that pictures don't get out to show what it's like inside!) But the main issue was the length of the contract – the hospital wanted a three year contract, and the nurses wanted a one year limit. For almost a year now, Nixon has frozen wage increases to 5¼%, and with inflation making the cost of living rise 3–4% a year, the nurses real wage would actually be 5% less than it is now in three years. So, on October 23, the R.N.'s voted to strike, and four days later, the L.P.N.'s did the same. They did this in spite of intimidation from their supervisors and from the management, and also in spite of intimidation from the courts (who issued an injunction against the strike).

The nurses won their strike. When the nurses saw that both the R.N.'s and the L.P.N.'s had similar problems, they said they would not return to work until each had a decent contract – despite the fact that they had been negotiating separately all along. When both groups got together and stuck to their demands, the hospital had no choice but to give in.

This was only a partial victory, however, since the wage increase barely covers inflation, and there is still a lot of doubt about how much say the nurses have about the quality of patient care at Cook County. The nurses did learn, however, that if they stick together, they are far more powerful than the hospital administrators.

A Bad Night At Goodyear

I work at Goodyear hose plant in North Chicago. I was cutting some scrap out of the rubber, because the boss doesn't want to waste one pound of rubber, when the knife I was using slipped and went into my wrist. I went to find the supervisor to get a pass to go to the nurse (rules are rules). When I got to her, she stopped the bleeding, but said I would have to go to the hospital and have the company doctor look at it. It took her twenty minutes to get someone to give me a ride. (All the big shots were too busy making sure every thing kept going to worry about me). While waiting in the office, my boss came in and asked the nurse how bad it was. When he found out, he said, "Damn it, I'll have to shut down the machine." No concern for his worker, just what they produce.

I finally got a ride to the hospital and I talked to the driver on the way and found out that I was the 8th person in the last 8 working days to be taken to the emergency ward at the hospital. When I got there, the doctor looked at my wrist (for at least 30 seconds) and signed a slip of paper saying I was able to return to work immediately. He didn't even ask what kind of job I was doing. My job was much to strenuous to return. He didn't even care if I had to use the arm that was cut all night long. I couldn't work when I got back, so I had to get a pass to leave.

All the workers know that this so-called doctor is a quack and he doesn't care at all about the people he sees. But he does care about saving the company some money by sending people back to work when they are injured. We are angry because this is an everyday happening - and it must, and it will end!

MEDICINE FOR PROFIT MEANS BAD MEDICAL CARE!!

Child Told She Might Die By Greedy Doctor

Mrs. White took her 8 year old daugther, Belinda, to a private doctor because Belinda was having spells of being nervous and sick. The doctor, Dr. Rodall, (on the south side), after seeing the child once and doing no tests, decided that Belinda was having seizures. The doctor had Mrs. White bring her back, week after week, and was giving her medicine he said was to prevent the seizures. Finally, the doctor told Mr. White that Belinda should go into a hospital for all kinds of tests and examinations, that the child might have to have brain surgery or she could die within one year. Before he would admit her to the hospital, he demanded a $300 down-payment.

Mrs. White was very upset and afraid for her daughter when she came into the People's Free Health Center. The doctor at the center said the child needed to have a brain wave test and skull x-ray before he could really decide if the child was having seizures. But, he doubted that the problem was seizures, as the mother's description of the problem was not typical of seizures.

An advocate from the Health Center went with Mrs. White and Belinda to Children's Memorial Hospital to get the tests done. When the tests were done, the doctor explained that all the test were OK and that Belinda was not having seizures. The hospital pharmacy examined the medicines Dr. Rodall had prescribed for the "seizures" and it turned out that the medicine was iron pills and a medication for asthma. This medicine would not have helped even if the child was having seizures--and in fact the asthma medicine can be harmful when it's not needed.

It is obvious that this Dr. Rodall was scaring Mrs. White so she would keep coming back and paying him more money. When she had become suspicious of him, she asked for the name of another doctor closer to home and he refused to do it. The only way we can stop this mistreatment is to fight for our right to good, free medical care.

Latin Woman Mistreated by Illinois Masonic Hospital

On October 4, Mrs. Maria Garcia came to our Free Health Center in a great deal of pain. She had been sick for several years, but doctors had done nothing to help her. Our doctor sent her to Illinois Masonic Hospital for immediate admittance because he thought she had a severe infection. We sent a translator from the Health Center because Mrs. Garcia only speaks Spanish. But, once inside the hospital, her troubles began. The hospital, which is supposed to be staffed with translators, subjected her to racist harassment by not providing her with a Spanish speaking worker to explain her medical condition and in general, what was being done for her. She could not describe the pain she felt and suffered because of this.

Two advocates (people who follow a patients case in order to make sure they are getting proper treatment) from the Health Center visited Mrs. Garcia and found that she hadn't been consulted about her condition for two days. They found a Mexican nurse and after explaining the situation to her, she agreed to visit Mrs. Garcia and translate for her.

When Mrs. Garcia was told the results of the tests they had made, she was left very upset. They said all her female organs would probably have to be removed - no further explanation was given. Mrs. Garcia is 24 years old, and she has no children.

On October 9th, when people from the Health Center came to see Mrs. Garcia, they found that she had earlier called for a nurse and waited a half an hour but got no response. She tried to get out of bed and knocked over the intravenous feeding bottles while attempting to get to the bathroom. When people did come in - they laughed at her.

After such treatment, Mrs. Garcia was happy to be released from the hospital on October 10th, but there was no doctor to be found who could explain what would happen now and if her tubes could be saved. Before the translator from the Health Center left the hospital with Mrs. Garcia, they went to spend an hour consoling another Latin woman who had a serious problem but no translator. We complained to the hospital administration, since Illinois Masonic prides itself on being a friend to the Latin community. The man we saw said Mrs. Garcia should come to see him when she was due to return for treatment as an outpatient, and he would make sure she got good care. He tried to put the blame for her treatment on the workers in the hospital, but we said the problem was one of policy by the heads of the hospital, not the workers who can't be expected to be unpaid translators in addition to doing their medical work on already understaffed floors.

When Mrs. Garcia went back to the outpatient clinic to be checked up, she was told to come back in 6 months. We complained that she hadn't been properly checked and demanded a complete medical plan to try to save her tubes. We found ourselves locked out of the examining room. Finally, the doctor realized we were there to help - and we were able to work out a plan.

Mrs. Garcia was relieved that something was finally worked out, but she said her primary concern was for the many Latin women in the hospital who had no translators and who were being given medical care with no explanation, and based on very little information. We will continue to work with Mrs. Garcia to change Illinois Masonic's policies toward it's patients and workers.

Sister Hit By Car– Police Don't Care

On October 21, I was struck by a car on Barry off Broadway. Two policemen were across the street eating and they took their time coming over while I was lying in the rain. When they finally came over, they told me I was "obstructing traffic and had to move. Luckily, two sisters came over to help me.

After I told the police what happened, they said, "You should have remembered what your mama told you and looked both ways before you crossed the street." One woman told the pig to get out of my face. He didn't believe that I was hurt and asked to see me walk. I tried to convince him that I was hurt in my hip, where the car hit me. He finally believed me when I started crying after I tried to walk. As I waited for a paddy wagon to take me to St. Joseph's the police reassured the driver of the car that hit me that everything would be alright and I saw no action taken against the driver. When the wagon came the two women picked me up and put me in while the police just watched.

At the hospital, everyone was irritable, cold and rough–except for one young nurse. Their main concern was if my mother had Blue Cross and Blue Shield. By this time I couldn't hold my anger back and started yelling at them. So, they ignored me until my mother came with some money.

So much for the "serve and protect" police and the "dedicated to healing" hospitals. You can see through more and more lies every day.

Everyone up at 31st and Keeler (Lawndale Park) is still keeping their high spirits, despite the cold weather and the pigs bothering everyone. Now that it's cold out, everyone started going to Corkery Park because we can shoot pool and stay inside the park house. But, the pigs told us they don't want us there – which is really ridiculous. We pay taxes, like everyone else, to build the parks. And now that we want to use them, the pigs say we can't. The parks belong to the people, and we intend to use them.

A few of our brothers were taken into the army last week – George Matysiecisy and Gregg Palmer – and as soon as they get an address they are going to write us so we can get them subscriptions to Rising Up Angry to keep up with what's going on while they're away.

Gang fighting is a drag. About the only things that come out of it is someone being killed or hospitalized for a while.

Also, when we're fighting each other, the other problems in our day-to-day lives continue. Problems like working a job for low pay, working an unsafe job, or no job at all. The only way to deal with problems like this is through uniting and demanding a better life. But we can't do that when we're fighting another gang, or park, or streetcorner.

Recently, people from Jensen Park and the Latin Kings were fighting each other. One night, a brother who was standing outside of Jensen Park was hit by shotgun pellets. He was hospitalized for about 10 days and was in critical condition for awhile. (He's all right now).

After about a week, people from the Kings and the park got together and worked out an agreement to stop the shooting. One of the brothers from Jensen Park said, "Nixon negotiates for four years and can't do anything. We got it done right away. That's because we're being shot at and Nixon isn't" Right on!

It might be awhile before tensions are eased but for sure, people want

PBC/Hamlin Park Football Team

Last Sunday, November 5, the Fighting Burley Boys (a football team) won the North Side Championship. The Burley team had a 7 to 1 won-lost record going into the game. They beat the Waveland Park Vikings 20 to 13 to take the championship.

The Fighting Burley Boys team is made up of brothers both from PBC and Hamlin Park who got together about 6 yrs. ago to play football. This year they joined a league, and with the help of Coach Miller (from Burley) went on to win the championship.

The Waveland Park league that the team joined turned out to be real bogus. They had to pay $10 a man to join the league. Some of the agreements that were promised to the team were: they were supposed to get $800 for winning the championship; play on a marked field; get a banquet at the end of the season; have referees at the playoff games; the playoff games were supposed to be in a stadium. The above were all things that were promised by the league and didn't happen. The games were good but the league was a real rip-off.

Senn H.S. Dance

A farout thing happened at a dance at Senn High School, on Saturday night, Nov. 4th.

Two brothers started to get into a fight with each other; a few punches were thrown and then they realized what they were doing, so they grabbed each other and started to laugh. They apologized, not only to each other but to the people around them.

While this was going on, a pig at the dance wanted to show a little of his power. He headed towards the brothers but he was stopped by all the brothers and sisters around. No one would let him through. The people knew they could handle it themselves and they did.

Later, one of the ushers went on stage and thanked the Board of Education for the dance -- and everyone booed. Then he thanked the Police Department and people booed even louder.

NIXON/"OUR" PR

Nixon, "our" president tries to make us believe that war is peace; day is nigh

Richard Nixon, "our" president - what has he done for us, to us? Let's take a look at his record on domestic spending, for a beginning. He has:

opposed - $19.7 billion for health, education, welfare and labor - 1/26/70

opposed - $2.8 billion for hospital construction - 6/22/70 opposed - $4.4 billion for education - 8/11/70 opposed - $18 billion for housing, urban development, veterans and space - 8/11/70 opposed - established limits on campaign spending - 10/12/70 opposed - $9.5 billion for manpower training and public service employment - 12/16/70 opposed - established federal programs to train more M.D.'s for general practice - 12/26/70 opposed - pay rise for federal "blue collar" workers - 1/1/71 opposed - $2 billion for public works jobs - 6/29/71 opposed - funds for economic opportunities and $2.1 billion for child development programs - 12/19/71

With this record, it's hard to believe that Nixon is responsible for 25% of the national debt. Since he is opposed to spending our tax money to benefit us in this country, where does our money go? Nixon spends billions of dollars on fighter jets and research into more sophisticated weaponry. To break that down, $216 million every 24 hours, to kill the people of Vietnam. Yet, he opposses any kind of government spending to benefit the people of America. For every bomber built, 5,000 school classrooms could have been built. For every destroyer, 9 school buildings. This is "our" president.

t; and everything is gonna be alright. Well, it's not.

Nixon was elected president, in 1968, because he had a "secret plan" to end the war. In the 4 years Nixon had to end the war, he and his administration are responsible for 6 million people being killed, wounded, or made homeless. 40,000 South Vietnamese civilians have been executed under the Phoenix program, whereby supposed civilian leaders of the National Liberation Front have been assasinated with out trial. By August, over 100 primary schools, 60 vocational schools, secondary schools and colleges, over 100 churches, 32 health establishments (22 hospitals), had been bombed. By September, Nixon was dropping 100,000 tons of bombs per month. The equivalent of a Hiroshima-size atom bomb, every 5 days. There are still 39,000 sailors and pilots, and 60 U.S. warships, off the shore of Vietnam. There are 50,000 U.S. troops and 900 combat planes operating out of Thailand. And, Nixon, this twisted-minded degenerate, had the nerve to send his boy, Henry Kissinger, all over the world declaring "peace is at hand." Yet, never once did the bombing or killing stop. The only thing "at hand" was the election. And, this heartless man is "our" president.

Nixon also talks a lot about his great economic policy and how the people are living better than they ever have. Now, what people is Nixon talking about? Maybe it's the RCA people, who's profits rose 105.8% last year; or the B.F. Goodrich people, who's profits rose 54.4%; or the Ford people, who's profits rose 43%.

Maybe the people Nixon's talking about are the 1,300 people with incomes over $50 thousand, who paid no income tax at all (at least 3 of these people had incomes of over $1,000,000). Or, maybe he means the people at the U.S. Steel Corporation, who carried on a total business of almost $5 billion and had a net income of $154,315,754, yet paid no income tax.

He's definatly not talking about the people who work for RCA, B.F.Goodrich, Ford, U.S. Steel; or who work for any of the other monopolies. Their paychecks went up 4.9% on the average, while their food bill went up 10.8%. He's not talking about the 15,000,000 people, more than one out of every six in the national workforce, who cannot make a living by working; or the people who have returned from Vietnam, 700,000 of whom are victims of the heroin plague; or the 15,000 people who are killed in the factories every year due to unsafe working conditions. Nixon's economic policies are another example of "our" president's twisted mind.

We are told this is a free country - it is free, for some people - it's free for Nixon and his gangster friends. Nixon has invested in 2 southern Florida land deals; others involved in the deals have had links with organized crime. Two men in particular are Leonard Bursten and Nathan Ratner. Meyer Lansky, who is one of the top men in organized crime, controls the Miami National Bank, the chief creditor in a bankruptcy case which led to a $300,000,000 suit, which is still pending, against Nixon and other members of his New York law firm. The suit was for their alleged part in skimming over $5,000,000 in the bankrupt firms account. And, California mobster, Mickey Cohen, stated publicly that he donated thousands of dollars to the Nixon campaign. "Our" president has never denied this.

This country is also free for Nixon to systematically take away our constitutional rights. Take a look at his record: he's supported the "no knock law" that allows the police to break into any house on the suspicion that a crime is being committed. He supported "preventative detention" by which the police can jail, without bail, anyone who they feel may commit a crime if they were free. Nixon's new appointees to the Supreme Court are following in his footsteps. A recent ruling by them (Johnson vs. Louisiana) now allows a jury to convict a defendant by a simple majority, instead of a unanimous vote. The court has also ruled that confessions obtained in violation of a defendants rights can be used against the defendants credibility if the testimony varies materially from the confession. So, now the police can pressure (beat) you into a confession, legally (Harris vs. New York). These are a few examples, there are many more, of the attack on our constitutional rights by Nixon and his regime.

Increasing numbers of people are becoming aware of these attacks on our rights and wondering how far he will go - people will see what he is doing, sooner or later. They wonder what will happen next; what will happen next is already in operation. The Law Enforcement Assistance Agency was granted $1.75 billion for 1973. The money goes to purchase new sophisticated weapons, electronic surveillance (wire tapping, video tape cameras that beam back to police stations so they can watch the streets, etc.) and data banks, so the government can have access to information on every person who lives in the U.S. This does not include the weaponry and surveillance equipment of the local police, the FBI, the CIA, the national guard, or whatever else they have. In a free society, why is all this weaponry and surveillance necessary?

Nixon, "our" president tries to make us believe that war is peace; day is night; and everything is gonna be alright. Well, it's not going to be alright as long as we have men like Nixon, who believe that 5% of the population should control 90% of the wealth and as long as everything produced in this country is made for profit and not to meet the needs of the people.

RUA

"THE TRAIL OF BROKEN TREATIES"

On November 1st, over 1,000 people, Native Americans, who travelled from all over the country in a caravan of station wagons, buses and cars, began arriving in Washington D.C. They went to the capitol to let the government know that they refuse to tolerate the conditions they are forced to survive under.

Their land and water are continually being stolen from them, and what is not stolen, is polluted; in California alone, Indian families are forced to use water from polluted sources in 38 to 42% of their homes. Government money, that is to be used for their health, education, and housing, is being misused by political administrators and sometimes stolen completely. Their children are forced to go to schools that are run by the government; they are not being taught their true history and they are denied their culture (one of a love of land and nature). The quality of education they are given is very poor. The average income, per family, among Indians is just over $1,500 a year, and on most reservations, unemployment is at 50%. Because of these living conditions, their average life expectancy is 44 years - the national average is 25 years more.

The people went to Washington D.C. with 20 proposals to improve their living conditions, including the return of $50 million that was cut from the budget of the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA). One of the nine immediate demands is that John Crow, Deputy Commissioner of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and Harrison Loesch, assistand Secretary of the Interior, be relieved of duty. Other demands were that:

An Indian be appointed as director of the National Council of Indian Opportunity.

All bones and artifacts of Indian Ancestors be restored to the people for burial.

And that money appropriated for the education of Indian children by the Johnson O'Malley act be put directly in the hands of Indians and not channeled through state and local boards of education.

On November 2nd, 500 Indians took over the BIA building, just five blocks away from the White House, after government officials refused to grant them housing for their stay in Washington, as they had earlier agreed to. They also refused to allow them to hold religious ceremonies for the Indian war dead at Arlington Cemetery. On the evening of November 2nd, the government said they could have housing in an auditorium a few blocks away, but knowing not to put much faith in the governments word, someone went to the auditorium to check it out. The doors were locked. The Indians refused to leave the BIA building.

Our Native American brothers and sisters remained in the building, waiting for negotiations on their original demands. The government only responded by threatening to storm the building. After several days, the people were outraged that the government wasn't answering to the fact that they were responsible for breaking treaties and allowing corporations to rob the Indian people. With each threat of a bust, the Indians intensified their security and Russell Means, a spokesman from the American Indian Movement (AIM) said that 200 people had vowed to fight to the death if the government attacked. They blockaded the doors and windows of the building with desks and office machines. They made weapons from furniture - anything that was available inside the building.

In support of the action in Washington, local BIA offices were taken over in Seattle, Washington - Portland, Oregon - Wagner, South Dakota - Chadron, Nebraska - San Diego, California and San Francisco - Minnesota - 21 offices were taken over across the country in all. And, in Ottowa, Canada, Canadian Indians occupied the equivalent of the BIA and remained inside that building in solidarity with their brothers and sisters in Washington. Church groups and community organizations brought food to the Indians inside the BIA building in the capitol.

Finally, on November 6th, the people forced a meeting with a Nixon aide, who met with twelve Indian representatives at the White House. The Indians presented their demands, only to be met by more quiet lies. Nothing real - just promises of "Nixon's dedication to meeting the needs of the Indian people." Martha Gras, a 71 year old Pawnee, said: "There are nothing but crooks and liars up here - they'll steal you blind."

Later that evening, Secretary of the Interior, Rogers Morton, ignoring the support for the Indians that was shown all over the country, deliberately lied in a public statement. He had the nerve to say, "It is obvious to me that the seizure and continued occupation of the building are nothing more than a form of blackmail by a small group which seek to achieve through violence, objectives which are not supported by a majority of reservation Indians." This was too much! Inside the building, Vernon Bellecourt, an Indian brother from Colorado said, "We have now declared war on the United States - seek your battle stations."

The next day, November 7th, a delegation of Indian leaders, with the help of pressure from the people, finally won a meeting with the arrogant Interior Secretary Morton and a couple of administration officials. A special committe was set up to study the 20 proposals the Indians had asked to speak to them about for the last 6 days. After the government agreed that no one would be prosecuted for occupying the building, the people made plans to leave.

When they left the building, they took documents and treaties from the Bureau files which contained, "highly incriminating evidence" against former Senators and present congressmen from Western states. They will attempt to bring charges against these men for ripping-off Indian water and mineral rights.

It was estimated that $250,000 worth of damage was done to the building of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. Before they go about replacing $250,000 in office equipment, the government had better realize that their long "trail of broken treaties" must come to an end - and that repairing the Bureau of Indian Affairs must begin with turning the Bureau over to the people it is meant to serve - the Native Americans.

G.I.'S TELL NO LIES

NAPALM STICKS TO KIDS

INFERNO: During a battle northwest of Saigon, South Vietnamese pilots accidentally overshot their target and dumped four cannisters of American made napalm on the village of Trang Bang. A score of South Vietnamese soldiers and civilians were instantly devoured by the flames. Dozens of survivors, old and young, raced for safety down Highway 1. In their agony, some had ripped off their burning clothes, but there was no relief: the gelatinous napalm continued to burn into their skin.

As President Nixon and his fascist advisor, Henry Kissinger, lie to the American people about their pursuit of peace around the world, the U.S. arsenal of terror continues to drop a burning jelly, called napalm, that is burning men, women and children to death. Our brothers who have been stationed in Nam and who have seen or felt the effects of napalm, have not kept silent. They are telling us of the cold blooded murder that is being carried out in our name.

The following two poems were written by G.I.'s in Vietnam. The first was written by a group of Air Force and Army G.I.'s assigned to the Ist Air Cav. They sat down one night, in a hootch in Nam, and wrote this poem. It expresses their bitterness, about the things they had done, toward the military that had made them murderers. Each verse depicts an actual event that at least one of the men participated in.

Flying low and looking mean,
See that family by the stream,
Drop some nape and hear'em scream,
Napalm sticks to kids.

A group of gooks in the grass,
But all the fighting's long since past,
Crispy youngsters in a mass,
Napalm sticks to kids.

Drop some napalm on the barn,
It won't do too much harm,
Just burn off a leg or arm,
Napalm sticks to kids.

CIA with guns for hire,
Montagnards around a fire,
Napalm makes the fire higher,
Napalm sticks to kids.

Gather kids as you fly over town,
By tossing candy on the ground,
Then grease'em when they gather round,
Napalm sticks to kids.

Ox cart rolling down the road,
Peasants with a heavy load,
They're all "VC" when the bombs explode,
Napalm sticks to kids.

Cobras flying in the sun,
Killing gooks is much fun,
If one's pregnant, it's two for one,
Napalm sticks to kids.

Blues out on a road recon,
See some children with their mom,
What the hell, let's drop the bomb,
Napalm sticks to kids.

We shoot the sick, the young, the lame,
We do our best to kill and maim,
Because the kills count the same,
Napalm sticks to kids.

Flying low across the trees,
Pilots doing what they please,
Dropping frags on refugees,
Napalm sticks to kids.

A baby sucking on his mother's tit,
Children cowering in a pit,
Dow chemical doesn't give a shit,
Napalm sticks to kids.

There's a gook down on her knees,
Launch some fleshettes into the breeze,
Her arms are nailed to the trees,
Napalm sticks to kids.

They're in good shape for the shape they're in,
But, God, I wonder how they can win,
With napalm running down their skin,
Napalm sticks to kids.

Q. What do you think
When napalm splashes melting children's eyelashes?
A. I think I'll have eggs this morning

Q. What do you think
When indiscriminate flesh and shrapnel mesh?
A. I think I'll have two pieces of toast.

Q. What do you think
When man's insanity
is destroying humanity
A. I think I'll have coffee with cream.

Q. What do you think
When white phosphorus is killing the lice in childrens hair?
A. I think I'll have to watch my calories.

Q. What do you think
Are we transforming their psychology by dropping bombs of idealogy or are we blowing their minds to bits?
A. I don't think
I'll have any jam.

THE PHILIPPINES: FASCISM IN COMMAND

BUT THE PEOPLE ARE FIGHTING BACK

The Republic of the Philippines is an island nation of 37 million people located off of the coast of Asia. In 1946 it won its token independence from the U.S., but large U.S. corporations stayed in the Philippines to use the natural resources, exploit the labor and sell their goods. The govenment of the Philippines is therefore very dependent on the U.S. and on U.S. owned businesses. Today there are about 800 U.S. companies with holdings in the Philippines having assets valued at between $2–3 billion. U.S. owned companies take out $50 million a year in profits and the Philippines has the highest profit rate (about 100% on investments) for U.S. businesses in the world. Because of his dependence and service to U.S. owned businesses, the President of the Philippines, Ferdinand Marcos, is one of the richest men in Asia. However, most of the Filipino people are very poor as a result of this relationship. There is 40% unemployed in some areas and an inflation rate of 24.7% and the average income is $160.00 a year.

Philippine students protest President Marcos' regime.

Because Marcos and U.S. businesses are so rich and the people are so poor, a strong revolutionary movement has grown up in the Philippines demanding an end to U.S. control of the country and the end of fascist tactics used by the Marcos government. On September 23, 1972 President Ferdinand Marcos declared martial law in the Philippines for 3 reasons (1) to maintain his position as President; (2) to protect the U.S. interests there; and (3) to suppress the growing revolutionary movement (Several days before the declaration of martial law the U.S. Chamber of Commerce in Manila had strongly urged that martial law be declared. On the day of the declaration, U.S. ambassador Henry Byronde spent several hours with Marcos).

Because Marcos and U.S. businesses are so rich and the people are so poor, a strong revolutionary movement has grown up in the Philippines demanding an end to U.S. control of the country and the end of fascist tactics used by the Marcos government.

Marcos' 2nd term as president ends December 31, 1973. He cannot run for a 3rd term. Because Marcos is so hated, there was no way he could legally retain his power -- thus he abolished the constitution when he declared martial law. Furthermore, the Philippine Supreme Court had just made two rulings unfavorable to U.S. business interests. He overturned both of these rulings. And in the countryside, the New People's Army, (the revolutionary army) has been making large gains; in the cities, students and workers in revolutionary organizations are becoming popular as an alternative to Marcos: he outlawed all these groups.

Marcos' declaration of martial law suspended all civil liberties and made it impossible for any court to rule his declaration illegal. Furthermore, his declaration suspended school so students couldn't get together to protest his actions. He outlawed several organiztions and banned all strikes, rallies and demonstrations and he imposed a midnight to 4 a.m. curfew. Then he began making mass arrests of members of opposing political parties, including senators and congressmen, Senator Benegire Aquine, Jr., Marcos' main opposition for the presidency was arrested. Also arrested were editors of newspapers and progressive people all over the islands. There is total censorship of the press. Along with mass arrests there have also been mass executions by Marcos' secret police.

San Francisco demonstrators oppose martial law.

Philippine Congressman locked up under Marcos' martial-law decree.

To cover up the fascist dictatorship he has established, Marcos has tried to say he is creating a "new society". But the people recognize his dictatorhsip and heavy handed tactics as an extension of the old society and the resistance of the Filipino people has stiffened. Recently, there have been large scale defections from Marcos' army to the New Peoples Army. And the revolutionary organizations, which have been forced underground, have gained in strength since the imposition of martial law.

Around the world people have been enraged at the Hitler-like tactics being used by Marcos and equally enraged by the U.S. support of him. In New York and San Francisco there have been protests by Filipino-Americans and other progressive people who are demanding: (1) abolition of martial law (2) restoration of civil liberties and (3) release of political prisoners. In the Philippines, the New Peoples Army have responded with an intensified struggle. All people should denounce the fascism of the Marcos regime, demand the U.S. quit supporting dictators around the world, and stand in solidarity with our friends, the Filipino people!

MAKIBAKA HUWAY MATAKO!!
(DARE TO STRUGGLE)!!

I BAGSAK SI MARCOS!!
(DOWN WITH MARCOS)!

On January 30, 1970, Philippine workers, peasants and students held an anti-U.S. demonstration against violent repression in Manila.

WOMEN & THE MILITARY

Military authorities have begun a "sweeping expansion" of women's roles in the armed services. Recently, Navy Admiral Zumwalt said: "When you look at the level to which our society has developed, there is no reason in theory, in sociology or in equity why women should not have the same kind of opportunities the men have." Now that is certainly true – but when it is said by the same military that is responsible for dropping napalm on the children of Vietnam, sister, you'd better look at where it's coming from.

One of Nixon's plans for this country is to create an all volunteer military in the near future. Since the reputation of the armed forces is lower than ever before, because of the war in Indochina, military authorities recognize that it will be very hard to recruit people into the service to fill the vacancies left by demoralized G.I.'s. So, they have decided to capitalize on women's liberation by "opening up the military to women". They appeal to us by offering education, job opportunities and travel in the service. They want to entice us with all these things that we should, but aren't able to have in civilian life – because, for one reason, this nation's military budget is so high the government doesn't put any money into making our lives decent and giving us these same opportunities at home.

The army has plans to double the amount of Wac's; the navy plans to triple the amount of Wave's; and the Air Force has opened up 32 of its 48 "career fields" to include women in order to increase its size. And, who do they want? The average age of a Wac recruit is 19; most are from the working class with about 19% of these sisters being black. Uncle Sam wants more of us, and he wants us bad. But what the government doesn't seem to understand is that it's our brothers who are resisting in the service now, and we have been listening to what they are saying. Even though we know we wouldn't be directly involved in combat, as our brothers are, we would still be directly keeping the U.S. war machine going. It doesn't matter if we're sitting on a ship pushing buttons, we'd still be part of the invading forces sent out by the U.S. government to destroy the land and the people of countries that the big U.S. corporations want to control.

We already know that resistance among our brothers has been strong, but we don't often hear about the resistance that also exists among women in the military now. For example, there is Lt. Teri Pohl who enlisted in the Navy in 1966 to finish school and become a nurse. She was stationed in Sasebo, Japan, where after witnessing and experiencing the injustices of the military authorities, she began to organize against them. She also had to face the contradiction of being a nurse, to help people, while working for a military that maimed people on such a large scale. She began to talk to brothers on the ships that returned to Japan from Vietnam about resisting the war. Her navy fitness report commended her on her professional skills and her compassion to her patients, but said she did not possess the loyalty to the Navy that an officer should have. She applied for and won a C.O. (conscientious objector) and is now out of the Navy, working to end the war in civilian life.

Another sister, PFC Ruby L. Dorsey, who was stationed in Germany, wrote this letter of resignation:

"I'm black. I'm from the urban inner city. All my life I have been victimized by racism and discrimination. I could not find a job. I understood from advertising and the recruiting officer that I could escape all that by joining the Army and I was led to believe that I could go to school and learn a profession.

"After twenty-two months of active service I have seen that this wasn't the case. It is not even respectable to be a Wac, as it is widely accepted that all Wac's are either lesbians or nymphomaniacs. I have known for some time that the situation was "foul", but I thought perhaps I could endure the constant harassment, degradation and racism until my enlistment expired.

"But now, I feel that my original contract with the U.S. Army should be null and void because of the misrepresentation involved."

The misrepresentation of the military, that Ruby Dorsey speaks of, cannot be covered over with the flowery words of Admirals telling us what we already know -- that women should have the same kind of opportunities that men have. And, like Roby Dorsey, Teri Pohl and all our brothers and sisters who are resisting the military, we would be doing a greater service to our country to organize for change here than to be organized into the military to be used for destruction around the world.

RISING UP ANGRY

programs to serve the people

RISING UP ANGRY serves the people in as many ways as we can. Besides our newspaper that gives revolutionary news from around the city, the country and the world, we have programs that help us deal with the problems that people have to face every day. Our office is at 2744 N. Lincoln Avenue and our phone is 472--1791. Please contact us if we can serve you and your family in any way.

LEGAL PROGRAM: Our Legal Program deals with: criminal cases, housing, welfare, civil cases, divorce, draft, military, or just hassles of any kind with the law. Our lawyers are inexpensive and sometimes frec. No one is turned away for lack of money. There are 3 Legal Clinics: Wednesday nights at Rising Up Angry -- 2744 N. Lincoln Avenue -- between 7 and 9 p.m. /Tuesday nights at Albany Park Community Center -- 4949 N. Kedzie – between 7 and 9 p.m. -- phone 588-8735/ and for information on where to go for the Southside Legal Clinic, call the RUA office at 472-1791.

FREE HEALTH CARE: The Fritzi Englestein Free People's Health Center at 2747 N. Wilton Avenue is a Rising Up Angry Program. The clinic provides every kind of medical care – free! The clinic is open on Tuesday nights from 6 to 9 pm and Wednesday nights from 6 to 9 pm. Call 348–8578.

FOR OUR SISTERS: Our sisters try to meet some of the special problems that women face. The services are: welfare and legal counseling on Wednesday nights from 7 to 9 pm at 2744 N. Lincoln Avenue. (divorces, unwed mothers, juveniles, etc.) Pre - natal and pediatric care at Fritzi Englestein Free People's Health Center (see above, Free Health care). For free, legal abortion counseling, call Jane at 643--3844.

If your afternoons are free, you can come into the office and meet someone to sell papers with. If your evenings are free, you can work at the Clinic or on the Legal Program. You can work on the Sisters Program anytime. If you have any money to spare, it will be used to keep all the programs going. Please call us and help serve the people. All of our programs have a place for you.
